DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is response to communication filed on 4/6/2005.
2. Claims 1-7, 9-21, 26 and 28 have been canceled. Claims 23, 40 and 41 are now the pending claims presented for examination.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

3. Claims 23, 40 and 41 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because there's no practical application of what the business process or processes is being used for. The claims do not produce a useful, concrete and tangible result. State Street, 149 F.3d at 1373, 47 USPQ2d at 1601-02

Correction is required.

Response to Arguments

4. The amendment to the claims overcame the 101 technological arts rejection but it didn't overcome the 101 practical application rejection. The steps of the claims are drawn to the selection of noun, verb and an attribute and to represent and display a process based on said selection. There's no later processing of the information displayed. There's no practical application of what is done afterwards or analysis of the information displayed. The claims do not produce a useful, concrete and tangible result. State Street, 149 F.3d at 1373, 47 USPQ2d at 1601-02

Art Unit: 3622

Correction is required.

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
